Atlanta Street and Avenue Guide

and Directory of Householders

Copyright 1920 The Atlanta City Directory Co.

In this department the streets are arranged in alphabetical order without regard for geographical location, and intersecting streets are shown at their exact intersection. The number of each building on the street is given in numerical order, and opposite the number is placed the name of the occupant householder. In the business blocks containing offices the occupant of each room is shown by numbers where practicable.

The profession, business, etc., of individuals and firms are only given at their respective places of business; to find the occupant of any householder or business official refer to the Alphabetical portion of the Directory.

CAUTION: The matter contained in this guide has been copyrighted and warning is served against any unauthorized reproduction.

The City Directory

places the city on the map and is its only representative to the world beyond its own gates.

¶It is the city's catalogue of business and represents the city, its citizens and institutions in every corner of these United States.

¶It is the logical means of publicity in advertising the city, its manufacturing industries, its advantages and resources.

¶The men who direct the affairs of progressive and up-to-date business institutions recognize the fact that the City Directory tells the story of the city's life and keeps it before the public as no other publication does or can.

¶Its Classified Business Section furnishes a list of all trades, professions and pursuits, constituting a special trade directory or buyers' guide and is the best advertising medium on earth.
